1. Report No.

25X1A

 refers to 26 rolls of microfilm of reports by  available in the CIA Library. The first of these 26 rolls of microfilm carries a note that the information is for National Defense Use and not to be released to officials of competing firms. The other 25 rolls do not contain the note and no security classification appears on any of the 26 rolls.

2. The identity of the various firms and the full background of what the files represent is indicated in the correspondence microfilmed along with the reports.

3. Copies of this microfilm are in the hands of Army Map Service and Target Analysis Division of the Air Force. This source is regularly referred to by interested analysts in Army, Air Force, State, and Navy

4. In preparing the subject report rather complete background information was included to indicate the reliability of this major source. Since the report was classified "Secret, US OFFICIALS ONLY" and since no higher classification was attached to any of the information, the responsible analyst was not aware that it was contrary to regulations to mention  by name.

5. In an effort to insure compliance with regulations in the use of this material discussions with OO were initiated late in 1952 which resulted in a memorandum, copy attached, which explains requirements for release to a foreign government.
